

InToSpan Program

Friday, October 10th

Integrative Learning Center, N400

Time	Title
9:00 - 9:30	Registration/Coffee
9:30 - 9:45	Introduction and welcome
9:45 - 10:45	PLENARY TALK
	José Ignacio Hualde (University of Illinois-Urbana Champaign) Perception of Prosodic Prominence in Spanish
10:45-11:00	Coffee
11:00-12:00	Focus on focus Session chair: Nicholas Henriksen
	Ingo Feldhausen (Universität Konstanz) & Maria del Mar Vanrell (Freie Universität) Unifying empirical results and theory – Focus in Spanish and Catalan
	Covadonga Sánchez (UMass Amherst) Informational focus in Asturian Spanish: prosody and syntax
12:00-1:30	LUNCH (lunch provided)
1:30-2:30	Contact I Session chair: Lorenzo García-Amaya
	Ann Aly Bailey (UCLA) Intonational Phonology of Miami Cuban Spanish
	Brandon O. Baird (Middlebury College) Prosodic contrastive focus marking in the Spanish of K'ichee' (Mayan) bilinguals
2:30-2:45	Coffee
2:45-4:30	Sociolinguistics and variation Session chair: Marta Ortega Llebaria
	José Joaquín Atria (University College – London), Domingo Román (Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile), Héctor Ortiz (Universidad de Santiago), Magaly Ruiz (Universidad de la Frontera), Camilo Quezada Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile) & Ana Cortés Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile) Prosodic map of Chile: Foundations and initial results

	Franny Brogan (UCLA) Salvadorean Spanish Intonation: Continued work toward a comprehensive ToBI
	Daniel Vergara-González (University of Illinois at Chicago) The use of uptalk in Spanish dating shows?
4:45-5:30	Business Meeting

Saturday, October 11th

Time	Title
9:15 – 9:30	Registration/Coffee
9:30-11:00	Sentence types Session Chair: Maria del Mar Vanrell
	Cecilia Cota Martínez, Eduardo Patricio Velásquez Patiño, Eva Patricia Velásquez Upegui (Universidad Autónoma de Querétaro) Effect of politeness on requests in Mexican Spanish intonation
	Alba Arias Álvarez (UMass Amherst) Reconsidering pitch accent distribution: H+L* in Bogotá Spanish
	Mary Aguilar & Iván Galicia (El Colegio de México) Perceiving imperative: the role of intonation and gesture
11:00-12:00	Phonetic cues Session Chair: Brandon Baird
	Marta Ortega Llebaria & Maritza Nemoga (University of Pittsburgh) Sentence intonation processing by 6 and 10 yr. old children
	Nicholas Henriksen & Lorenzo García-Amaya (University of Michigan) Prosodic restrictions on falsetto in Western Andalusian Spanish: a pilot study
12:00-1:00	LUNCH (on your own)
1:00-2:00	PLENARY TALK
	John Kingston (Umass Amherst) Otomanguean tones: Typology, phonology and phonetics

2:00-3:00	La tonada cordobesa Session Chair: John Trimble
	Jennifer Lang-Rigal (James Madison University) Using prosody and intonation to identify accents: the role of peak and valley alignment in the Spanish of Córdoba, Argentina Grant Berry (Penn State University) Transcribing the "tune": prosodic and sociolinguistic properties of the tonada cordobesa
3:00-3:15	Coffee
3:15-4:15	L2 acquisition of intonation Session Chair: Eduardo Velázquez
	John Trimble (Weber State University) Variables in the L2 acquisition of Venezuelan Andean absolute interrogative intonation Maritza Nemoga & Marta Ortega Llebaria (University of Pittsburgh) L2 perception of Spanish intonation: absolute interrogatives and declaratives
4:15-5:30	Contact II Session Chair: Jennifer Lang
	Miguel García (The Ohio State University) Peruvian Amazonian Spanish: The phonological status of a tritonal pitch accent Eduardo Patricio Velásquez Patiño (Universidad Autónoma de Querétaro) Influence of Mexican Spanish in Morelos Nahuatl
6:30	Bus to Holyoke for Conference Dinner at Salsarengue